

In this season where we face the unknown, we want to realign our hearts with what we know. We know that God is on the throne; we know that when we draw near to God, He will draw near to us. What better time than the present to draw near to the One who knit you together? This seemingly “extra” time where we are quarantined at home can be used in many ways. What if we used it to better equip our kids (and thereby ourselves) and train them up in the Gospel?

Here are some resources to help you (and your children) invite God into your space. Whether it is starting a rhythm of family devotionals, memorizing scripture together, coloring verse pages or crafts, or listening to inspiring/silly songs...don't let this time be one that is squandered.
